

Scripture

1) "The Spirit of the Sovereign Lord is on me, because the Lord has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners, 2) to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor and the day of vengeance of our God, to comfort all who mourn, 3) and provide for those who grieve in Zion—to bestow on them a crown of beauty instead of ashes, the oil of joy instead of mourning, and a garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair. They will be called oaks of righteousness, a planting of the Lord for the display of his splendor.

Accountability Questions

For the purpose of this P2C chapel, you do not need to discuss the questions in this section as there is no prior meeting to refer to. This is to serve as an example of what would be talked about for a group that meets regularly.

What are you thankful for this week?

What is a challenge you are facing?

- Is there some way our group can help you?

How did it go with last week's "I Will"?

Read the Scripture

Read the passage of scripture aloud together 2-3 times through. Consider reading it in different translations each time it is read.

Re-Tell

What does the scripture say? Don't interpret, just re-tell. How would you put this in your own words?

Group Discussion

Discuss the following together:

What does this passage teach us about God?

What does it teach us about people - about you and I?

After discussing this together, decide what you have discovered personally and what you can do to apply it.

I Will...

As a result of what you have discovered this week, what do you need to change or do in your life?

- How will you live this out this week?
- Who needs to hear this?

You can say it as an "I Will _____" sentence.
